CHESS: 80 CLASSIC PROBLEMS

Carlton. 1 Paperback(s), 2009. soft. Book Condition: New. Using real-world examples from tournament games many of them classics that have been overlooked for one reason or another this guide spotlights dynamic and destructive tactical patterns in chess, describing positions where the winning move forces instant checkmate, resignation, or a decisive advantage in play. Most of these game plays reveal a sustained attacking pressure by an aggressive player, who has already committed himself to his plan of action by sacrificing pieces, and must...
