Page, on his recollections of Student Life at the German Universities; and yet another by Dr. C. W. Kent, on the Preparation of a Thesis. Second, by the discussion of questions of importance to the University, or to the student body, or relating to graduate work at the University. After such discussion, if it is thought desirable, committees are chosen and a report is submitted at the next meeting. Among the questions so discussed this year are The reasons for the falling off in number of students, and The adoption of the cap and gown by men taking academic degrees at the final exercises. Committees are now at work on both of these questions, which are of real interest to every student. The Graduate Club has over twenty members this year, and has entered into its work with spirit and a determination to make the organization of lasting value to each member. J. P. McCALLIE. RELIGIOUS WORK IN THE UNIVERSITY. The following statistics with regard to the church affiliation of the students of the present session are gathered from the first five hundred and ninety-four matriculation papers. It is thus seen that 60 per cent, of the students are members of the churches named. Denomination. Members. Affiliation. Tatal.
