The meeting was called to order by Mr. E. J. McDermott, of Louisville, as follows: In behalf of The Louisville Bar Association, gentlemen, I welcome you. This association and the Covington Bar Association have called this meeting in the hope that a useful and permanent State association may be established. We have not forgotten the wrecks of the past. We do not deceive ourselves with Utopian dreams of future power and glory. We know the difficulties, but we feel that we can accomplish at least a little in a field wherein the lawyers of other States have done much. What Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, New York and the other States have done we can do. We are behind them in some things, but we are not by...
