Dept. of Labor, Occupational Safety and Health Administration, 1997. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)36631340 Subject: Safety consultants -- United States -- Directories. Excerpt: . . . Voluntary Protection Programs (VPP) The Voluntary Protection Programs (VPP), OSHA Consultations sister program, are designed to recognize and promote effective exemplary safety and health program management. In the VPP, management, labor and OSHA establish cooperative relationships at workplaces that have implemented strong programs. Sites approved for VPPs Star, Merit, and Demonstration programs have met, and must continue to meet, rigorous participation standards. Benefits of VPP participation include improved employee motivation to work safely, leading to better quality and productivity; lost-workday case rates that generally are half of the national industry averages; reduced workers compensation and other injury-and-illness-related costs; positive community recognition and interaction; further improvement and revitalization of already good safety and health programs; and partnership with OSHA. Voluntary Protection Programs and onsite consultation services, when coupled with an effective enforcement program, expand worker protection to help meet the goals of the OSHA Act. For additional information about the VPP, contact the VPP Manager in your OSHA regional office listed at the end of this publication. Training and Education OSHA area offices offer a variety of information services, such as publications, audiovisual aids, technical advice, and speakers for special engagements. OSHA's Training Institute in Des Plaines, IL, provides basic and advanced courses in safety and health for federal and state compliance officers, state consultants, federal agency personnel, and private sector employers, employees, and their representatives. The OSHA Training Institute also has established OSHA Training Institutes . . . This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
