Reviews

This is basically the finest publication i actually have go through till now. We have read and i also am confident that i am going to likely to read through again once more in the foreseeable future. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Justice and Mercy: A Sermon Preached at an United Service Held in the Methodist Episcopal Church, of Davenport, Iowa, on the National Fast Day, June 1st, 1865 The frequent calls for a national recognition of God as our Providential Ruler and Preserver, which have of late emanated from the Chair of our Chief Magistrate, are peculiarly gratifying to those who revere the name of God. While we admit no authority to command it, as Christian men and women we gladly unite in such public acknowledgments of the Almighty. Therefore, are we here to-day. It is to be presumed that most of us are satisfied that, no such sorrow can find expression to-day in connection with this service, either here or elsewhere, as deluged the land seven short weeks since, when the startling cry rang forth from the Capitol, Lincoln is murdered! The grief of that day was too intolerable to be kept secret. One long, loud wail swept over the continent. It outran the sun. The throbbing wires scattered the anguish faster than the beams of the morning fly westward. Few were they who did not mourn. And the long protracted obsequies of that stateliest funeral which crept like a moving pall of death over the breadth of the loyal domain; the land everywhere sombre with the emblems of the grave; tens of thousands in mute tearfulness gazing on the face of him they loved as scarce any other ruler was ever loved, who held in his hand the affectionate trust of millions, twice given, as the honest guardian of the nation s integrity and safety: - all their, the tense, the passionate, the wide-spread...
