Out of this sum the expenses of the armies of occupation subsequent to the Armistice of November 11, 1918, shall first be met, and such supplies of food and raw materials as may be judged by the Governments of the Principal Allied and Associated Powers to be essential to enable Germany to meet her obligations for reparation may also, with the approval of the said Governments, be paid for out of the above sum. The balance shall be reckoned towards liquidation of the amounts due for reparation. Germany shall further deposit bonds as prescribed in paragraph 12 (o) of Annex II hereto. Article 236. Germany further agrees to the direct application of her economic resources to reparation as specified in Annexes, HI, IV, V, and VI, relating respectively to merchant shipping, to physical restoration, to coal ana derivatives of coal, and to dyestuffs and other chemical products; provided always that the value of the property transferred and any services rendered by her under these Annexes, assessed in the manner therein prescribed, shall be credited to her towards liquidation of her obligations under the above Articles. Article 237. The successive instalments, including the above sum, paid over by Germany in satisfaction of the above...
