We had rather a rough passage, and arrived at Ostend at halfpast five in the afternoon. We dined, and walked in the evening on the Dyke, which affords a fine dry promenade to the lovers of sea-views and sea-breezes. There is but little to detain the tourist at Ostend; but those who have never yet seen any of the carved woodwork for which Belgium is so celebrated will find some good specimens to begin with in the spacious church. Sunday, June 27. - Sent the children and servants on by the railway to Brussels, whilst we stopped at Ghent to dine and see the town. The whole place was in a bustle, every one going to the races; English equipages rattling in all directions, and...
