By Mark W Medley Mba

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 249 x 173 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .An IELTS General Training test score is a compulsory requirement for anyone who wishes to immigrate, or work in Australia, Canada and New Zealand. These two reasons are why students should spend time practicing their English language skills for this international test. General IELTS Writing Questions, is designed to provide educators, and students with a collection of photocopiable general training writing questions, which can be used to supplement current materials relating to the IELTS general training test. Educators can provide their students with a selection of up-to date, authentic samples of an IELTS writing one, and two question, whilst students can use each question for simulated writing practice outside their classroom. All the questions include a mini checklist, and cover a wide range of subjects needed to master this most challenging part of the IELTS test, with links to our online video collection. and a free ebook version of the book, through the Amazon Matchbook program. This second edition of General IELTS Writing Topics, is an ideal supplementary resource for classroom or self study use, and is published...
