Excerpt: .up as a Christian by her pious parents. She was sought in marriage by a pagan prince, Conon, said in the legend to be the son of a king of England. The English king, called Agrippinus, sent ambassadors to Maurus, king of Britain (or Brittany) asking the hand of his daughter Ursula for his heir. But Ursula made three conditions: first, that she should be given as companions ten noble virgins, and that she herself and each of the virgins should be accompanied by a thousand maiden attendants; second, that they should all together visit the shrines of the saints; and third, that the prince Conon and his court should receive baptism. These conditions were complied with; the king of England collected 11,000 virgins; and Ursula, with her companions, sailed for Cologne, where she arrived miraculously without the assistance of sailors. Here, she had...
