A35 2010d OCLC Number: (OCoLC)747985520 Excerpt: . . . 11 What role will you and the Department of Agriculture play in fighting, and I put in fighting , on behalf of all of agriculture against the laundry list of regulations and ideas that could put farmers and ranchers out of business We do not have a baseline. We do not have money. And in talking to other members on the Committee, we are scratching our heads thinking how on earth do you write a farm bill with no money. That happened once before some years ago and I had that chal-lenge in the other body. It is tough. But one of the things we can do is relieve farmers from over regulation and regulatory costs that do not meet sound science standards. They may meet standards in terms of ideology or where people want to go or this or that or the other, you know, peoples personal opinion. But they do not make sense in farm country. So if we could do regulatory reform, it would be a wonderful thing. For example, changing the scope of the Clean Water Act. Right now we have a navigable water situation where farm ponds are considered navigable water. No self-respecting duck would ever even land there. We have rural fugitive dust. I emphasize fugitive . That is going to be a TV series, rural fugitive dust. It was in the 70s and now it is back again. OSHA standards, spray drift, animal antibiotics, just to name a few. Will you please help us and be a strong advocate for sound science on these regulations,...
